PROMINENT MEN INDICTED IN ALLEGED ELECTION FRAUDS

CAMBRIDGE POLITICAL BOMB BURST SHAKEN BY

J. A. MONTGOMERY INDICTED IN CAMBRIDGE.

100 JEWS KILLED AND WOUNDED BY RUSSIANS

COLLISION WITH SOLDIERS AT MINSK RESULTS IN MASSACRE.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 10.—Late dispatches report that nearly one hundred persons were killed and wounded in the rioting at Minsk, in which the Jews were the chief sufferers, falling victims to the fury of the soldiers.

It is reported that there have been a renewed massacre of Armenians at Erivan, Transcaucasia.

LUCANIA STUCK FAST IN MUD

By Boston American Leased Wire.

NEW YORK, June 10.—In trying to make her port in the North River today, the ocean liner Lucania stuck fast in the mud. A big fleet of tug boats were being tried to release her, but in vain. The tugboats were towed to the north side of the river. The tugboats were towed to the north side of the river. The tugboats were towed to the north side of the river.

METAL WORKERS IN SWEDEN LOCKED OUT

RYDSTROM, June 10.—A general lock out of the iron and metal workers has been declared throughout Sweden. Three hundred factories are affected and 17,000 men are locked out as a result of the strike.

Japan and Russia Agree to Negotiate. TRUCE TO STAY FIGHT

Roosevelt's Efforts Toward the Cessation of Strife Are Successful.

Belligerents to Meet and Discuss Terms to End the War.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Official Washington is momentarily expecting news that an armistice between Russia and Japan has been declared. The war has been declared in the Far East. Both Powers have signified their willingness for their representatives to meet and discuss peace.

This is the triumphant conclusion of President Roosevelt's efforts to bring Russia and Japan together, and to direct negotiation and the disastrous war which has raged for more than a year in the Far East, with only little lull during the summer and winter of the last year.

MAY MEET IN MANCHURIA.

Now, that Mr. Roosevelt's efforts have been successful in bringing the two belligerents to the point of meeting, the President in his dispatches, the official word, has been that the meeting of the commissioners will be held in the Far East, where the fighting has been most severe. It is possible that either Tokyo or Peking will be the place of meeting. It is also possible that the meeting will be held in Manchuria.

TO RECEIVE BODY OF PAUL JONES AT HAVRE.

PARIS, June 10.—The French government has indicated its willingness to assign a torpedo boat to carry the body of Paul Jones from the river Seine to Havre, where a French gunboat will deliver the body to the American authorities. This will necessitate a change in the regulations of the American warships from Cherbourg to Havre, which is now under consideration.

GOVERNOR BELL IS THE LAST HOPE OF MRS. MARY ROGERS

CONDEMNED WOMAN'S LAWYERS TO MAKE FINAL APPEAL TO EXECUTIVE.

Special to the Boston American. MONTFLEET, Vt., June 10.—Mary Rogers' hope of life after June 23 is a slender one. She is a woman who has been convicted of the murder of her husband, and is now in the State Prison at Montfleets. Her lawyers are making a final appeal to the Governor, Governor Bell, to commute her sentence. They are also making a final appeal to the Executive.

The Case Against Montgomery.

THE ACCUSATION.

Assistant District Attorney Hugh Bancroft of Middlesex county says:

"Montgomery is charged with both making a false oath, and making a false certificate as to the qualifications of certain persons."

THE PENALTY.

The statute under which Superintendent of Parks James A. Montgomery will put his case into the hands of Judge Foster H. Cooke, his regular court. When Mr. Montgomery is charged with the crime of making a false oath and a false certificate as to the qualifications of certain persons.

"Whoever knowingly or willfully makes a false affidavit, takes a false oath or signs a false certificate relative to the qualifications of any person for assessment or registration, shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than one year."

"Spite Work," Declares Superintendent of Parks James A. Montgomery, Arrested on Charge of False Swearing and False Certification in Last Fall's Elections—Heavy Penalty if Convicted.

Due to Spite, Says Montgomery.
"Personal and political spite is at the bottom of this. I ask you to deny in toto any guilt on my part."—Park Superintendent Montgomery to the BOSTON AMERICAN.

A political bombshell burst in this city to-day, when the startling news spread that between fifteen and twenty of the most prominent business men of Cambridge, who have been leaders in politics, had been indicted by the Middlesex County Grand Jury in connection with alleged grave violations of law in last fall's election.

Only one arrest has as yet been made—that of James A. Montgomery, superintendent of parks—but other arrests fully as sensational, it is expected, will be made before evening.

The charge against Mr. Montgomery, and it is presumed, against the other men indicted, is that they made false oaths and false certificates with reference to the registration of voters in the turbulent Cambridge election. The penalty for such a violation of law, if proven, may be a year in the penitentiary.

MONTGOMERY DENIES GUILT.
Supt. Montgomery, who was arrested and released after furnishing $1,000 bail, is a wealthy manufacturer of baking powder. He has been an active figure in politics, has served in the House of Representatives, and was recently a candidate for the Senate.

He asserts that he is guiltless of the violation of any law, and that he cannot imagine why he was apprehended.

Assistant District Attorney Hugh Bancroft of Middlesex county, who acted as the charge against Mr. Montgomery, said:

"The charge against him and upon which he was indicted is that he both made a false oath and a false certificate as to the qualification of certain persons to vote."

Superintendent Montgomery will put his case into the hands of Judge Foster H. Cooke, his regular court. When Mr. Montgomery is charged with the crime of making a false oath and a false certificate as to the qualifications of certain persons.

"I have made no false oath or certificate, and I have made no false certificate as to the qualifications of certain persons."

QUINCY WINS THE FIRST PRIZE FOR CATCHING AUTO SPEEDERS

TWO MEN WHO ARE DREADED BY AUTOMOBILE SPEEDERS IN QUINCY.

J. M. Sears, Jr., and Eugene M. Foss Among Those Who Have Paid Fines.

The extraordinary number of prominent automobile owners who have been fined in the court of Quincy for exceeding the limit of this season has led to the spread of the rumor that a desire upon the part of the short police officials that city to replenish their treasury may have inspired such wonderful activity.

At least one charge has not been laid at the door of the Quincy officials—that of discrimination. Among the seventy-five or more men who have paid fines there were many of the wealthiest residents of Greater Boston. One young man, who was gathered by the license, was J. Montague N. Foss. The fines ranged from $10 to $25 each.

The latest record of the violators of the officials was the assignment of the automobile drivers before the District Court. Frank Sears, William H. Murphy, John Darling, Simon W. Brown, Edward Kennedy, Lawrence M. Foss, and others were among the names called.

A speed faster than ten miles an hour does not go to South Shore, and it may be that the Quincy officials are making such wonderful catches in their auto cars. On last Sunday afternoon, a car was stopped in the middle of the road, and the driver was fined $10.

Not All Caught in Quincy.

"We are pretty well up on automobiles around here," said the Chief. "They speeded up the season by about 100 per cent. I have heard more of them than I have of the cars. I have heard more of them than I have of the cars. I have heard more of them than I have of the cars."

Constabulary Unable to Subdue Lawlessness in Many Districts.

ARMY CONTROL WANTED

WASHINGTON, June 10.—The Army and Navy Journal prints an article showing that lawlessness is again rampant in the Philippines and that the Philippine constabulary is utterly unable to cope with the situation.

The entire abolishment of the constabulary system and the substitution of military control in the distressed districts is recommended. The article was in part:

"The situation in Samar has become extremely serious. Philippine constabulary, numbering several thousands, have instituted a reign of terror in districts equal to a third of the whole area of the island. On June 10, 1905, the constabulary was ordered to suppress the work have done little or nothing. They urged the abolition of the constabulary and the substitution of military control in the distressed districts is recommended."

TRINE A Victory for

Owing to the adverse criticism to which ales have been subjected of late, we feel the public will be gratified to read the following letter, which speaks for itself:

Boston, Mass., April 28, 1905.

McCormick Brewery Co., Boston, Mass.

Gentlemen—I have analyzed the sample of Triane Ale, brewed by your company, with the following results:

Specific Gravity 1.00706
Absolute Alcohol (by weight) 6.5 p. c.
Total Solid Extract 4.58
Sugar 1.4
Ash 0.219

I pronounce this "Triane" Ale a pure and wholesome beverage in every respect. Respectfully submitted, DR. J. W. BAIRD, Professor of Analytical Chemistry, Massachusetts College of Pharmacy.

NORWAY ON THE WAY TO BE A REPUBLIC

Denmark and Sweden Have Refused to Supply Prince to Take Throne.

WILL HOLD CONVENTION

CHRISTIANIA, June 10.—Norway, freed from the domination of King Oscar, is now holding a special meeting of the Riksdag of government. Generally it is regarded that a republic is inevitable. King Oscar has refused to name one of the royal houses of Denmark to sit on the Norwegian throne. Denmark has refused to give one of its royal houses to sit on the Norwegian throne. Norway, however, is a republic in the form of government, which is now expected. A king while at the same time, a project will be to hold before the people a referendum.

"Sweden Must Act."

By the revolutionary proceeding the Norwegians have, not only without the sanction of the king, but with the least consideration of Sweden and its own authority, determined upon the restoration of the crown, which is the very essence of the republic. Increasing Employment of Women in Industry

By Frank K. Foster

If the public knew what evidence had been heard and had had an opportunity to be represented, the report might also be valuable.

1.—Then a girl buys a hat she refuses to take the milliner's advice as to what is becoming.

2.—And if her girl friends criticize her headgear she attributes their remarks to jealousy.

3.—But let one of her gentleman friends tell her that some other style of hat would be more in keeping with her style of beauty.

4.—And she immediately rushes back to the millinery shop and exchanges her hat for the one "Charlie" likes.
